*"IT'S LIKE SATCHMO,
ELVIS, ERNEST TUBB,
LITTLE RICHARD, ROY CLARK,
PRINCE, AND SLIM WHITMAN
JELLO-WRASSLIN' IN A MUSICAL DUMPSTER!"*

Hello!

The Ruby Red's Band may be the oldest, continuously operating jazz band in Georgia. The band was formed in early 1966 to perform nightly at a rowdy beer hall and banjo sing-along parlor called Ruby Red's Warehouse, first at 57 Ellis Street in downtown Atlanta and later in the original Underground Atlanta, and has been playing throughout the Southeast ever since.

Over our near-50 year history we've played for nearly every major corporation in the Southeast! Then there's the thousands of private parties, land auctions, professional sports events, conventions, store openings, concerts, topping-off parties and ribbon cuttings, arts festivals, state fairs, ice-cream socials, weddings, divorces, jazz funerals, country clubs, backyard barbecues, wake-up breakfasts and all-night street dances. We can't even begin to count the parades! We've played for Mayors, Congressmen, Senators, Governors, and even a few Presidents in political campaigns and at community celebrations.

All that longevity must count for something and we think it says lots about how much fun you can have listening to great music played by good musicians. Our clients, who keep coming back year after year, apparently agree.

If you are looking for good, lively, funny and very musical entertainment for your event, we'd certainly like to be considered. Our band is portable and flexible enough to fit your needs - we can play a sit-down formal concert or an informal strolling event - we can open for a national act or carry a very entertaining show all by ourselves. We'll tailor the size of our group to match your budget with as little as 3 folks or as many as 10.

Yes. We'll dress for the occasion. We often wear dressy 30s style vests and hats but we can dust off the tuxedos if you need that. We suggest that we wear something, though. We're tired of the complaints!
